

WEEKLY PROGRESS REPORT

To be submitted by noon every Saturday by e-mail attachment to grwalker@ysu.edu.

State progress report in Subject line.

Information on how to fill out this form is found on page 2

Name:

Date:

Project: Fungal Proteomic Myogenesis Bioenergy Other

Researcher Level: Graduate Student Undergraduate Technician

Summary of Week's Laboratory Activities:

Problems Encountered and Problem Solving Responses:

Usable Results are to be submitted to grwalker@ysu.edu via E-mail:

Approximate Hours spent on research this week: .

Self Rating:

Very Productive

Productive

not very productive

Accomplished nothing

Rubric- How to fill out the progress form. The following describes the information sought in this form.

Project: Which of the listed projects are you working on or have help out with. check the appropriate box. If you are on a project not listed check the other box.

Researcher Level: Are you a graduate student researcher, undergraduate researcher or technician please check the appropriate box.

Summary of Week's Laboratory Activities: State a brief summary of your research activities this week including literature research, experiment preparation and execution or any activity directed at advancing your research.

Problems Encountered and Problem Solving Responses: Describe any technical problems you encountered. State what steps you took or will take to overcome the problems.

Usable Results Achieved: Describe and reference any data or result that would in a publication (thesis, dissertation or paper) or is an important advancement in your work.

Approximate Hours spent on research this week: Estimate the time spent on research related activities. Do Not include teaching or classroom times. Be honest!!!!

Self Rating: You should be self critical in this rating. I want to see how well you appraise your own effort.